

Pinnacle

COMMODITIES

30th August, 2010

We wish to announce the merger of Quest Commodity Brokers with Pinnacle Commodities. Commencing 1st October, we will be operating under the name of Pinnacle Commodities. Rod Buckle and Richard Officer are the current principal's of Pinnacle and Jayne Barker will join them as a shareholder in the merged entity. Simon McDougall has commenced working with Quest Commodities. Simon brings extensive commercial and agribusiness banking experience.

Our respective companies share similar ethos, size and geographical area. We feel that by merging we can realise these synergies by improving efficiency, service and market coverage. Pinnacle will have a mix of trade and grower brokering and cotton marketing as was the case with Quest.

The four of us look forward to improving our service and relationship with you. If you have any queries please do not hesitate to call.
